Chief guest on this occasion Prof. Ghogare G.B. guided the junior college students about the changes made in the new educational policy. There is an urgent need for public awareness and consistent counseling as the higher education system is undergoing a complete overhaul and massive change. The biggest impact of these changes will be on students studying in class XII from junior colleges. Accordingly, it was asserted that if the basic principles of student-centred education policy are to be effectively implemented, a new educational policy should be implemented or the same new educational policy should be faced by the students of Class XII. It also brought to light that the number of admissions in the first year colleges in the state is less than the capacity and the seats are remaining vacant. It is necessary to increase the gross enrollment ratio by reaching out to them about the available online courses. For that, every university in Maharashtra should conduct a wide outreach campaign for the students of class 12th in their area to make the students aware about this new educational change. Such information was given. After this, the president of this program Principal Dr. Chaus S.A. guided the students regarding the new educational policy during the School Connect program with the view of creating energy in the context of the new educational policy.
