Students Grievance Redressal Committee Annual Report

2022-23

Conducted by Hindustani Education Society AUSA and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar. Affiliated Sharadchandra Mahavidyalaya, Shiradhon. Ta. Kalamamb Dist. Dharashiv. Sharadchandra Mahavidyalaya was established in the academic year 2001-02. This college was established so that the students of rural areas can get educational benefits. Various committees are formed under the chairmanship of the principal in a meeting of all the faculty and non-teaching staff to ensure that the work of the college runs smoothly throughout the year. Among these various committees, the Student Grievance Redressal Committee is considered to be an important committee. This committee is constituted as per the rules of UGC. In this committee, women members, faculty members, non-teaching members, student members as well as principal perform the role of committee secretary. A grievance redressal box has been installed in the College on the facade of the College so that the problems of the students can be raised in the College. In this complaint box, students mention their problem on an application and put that application in the complaint box. In the last week of every month, the application in this complaint box is inspected through the committee and the complaint is redressed.

In the academic year 2022-23 this year, the students complained about the cleanliness of the classrooms through the complaint box. Also, a written complaint was made to the committee that a committee should be formed to solve the problems of scholarship. A written complaint was made to the committee regarding the provision of playgrounds for boys and girls and the availability of sports materials. All these complaints were resolved by the committee by meeting from time to time.
